

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION AND ART AWARD

CHROMATIC HARMONIES

CROCETTI MUSEUM – ROME

13 | 25 JUNE 2020

Chromatic Harmonies is the new international art exhibition and award organized by Arte Borgo Gallery. The exhibition will take place in the prestigious and suggestive location of the Crocetti Museum in Rome. Participation in the exhibition will involve a selection of artists who will be able to present their works in the following disciplines: painting, sculpture, photography, digital art. Each artist can freely express himself according to his creativity and stylistic research by generating a complex dialogue in which the chromatic balance of the works are the reflection of his own state of mind. A combination of colors that allow the artist and the user to immerse themselves in a dimension of incomparable sensations.

THE MUSEUM

The whole museum complex is made up of the Museum, the headquarters of the Foundation, the Multifunctional Hall and the study of the Sculptor, who in fifty years of life spent in active solitude has created many of his masterpieces and built, with his own hands, stone on stone, all these buildings ... a museum with a strong vitality, characterized by the continuous interchangeability of the works that make it always new and interesting.

THE PRIZE

Among all the participants, 3 artists will be selected and awarded by a technical jury, who will win an exhibition with 6 works (variable according to the size of the works) in the exhibition space of Borgo Art Gallery in Rome in 2020.
